Why the People Read The Times-Dispatch:

Because it prints all the news and prints it first.

People don't care for secondhand things, they want the news when it's new; they are not content to read of events that have become ancient history.

¶So they read The Times-Dispatch which covers the field at home, throughout the State and abroad.

Tive private telegraph wires run into The Times-Dispatch Building, two of which carry the news of the Associated Press. The Times-Dispatch is the only paper in the South which is served by two Associated Press wires.

The market page of The Times-Dispatch is as good as any in the United States, and is more complete than any in the South.

The Times-Dispatch alone of all the Southern papers, carries the baseball box scores of the National and American Leagues, in addition to the box scores of the Virginia League and the sporting news of the day. The people read sports first in The Times - Dispatch and afterwards the same sports in other papers. Society both in Richmond and throughout the State appears first in The Times-Dispatch.

Tive hundred Times-Dispatch correspondents in Virginia and North Carolina send in the news which this paper prints and which other papers copy.

The best proof that the city news appears first in The Times-Dispatch is that it afterwards appears in other Richmond and Virginia papers. ¶Everything that happens in the city is chronicled in The Times-Dispatch — that is, all that is fit to print.

¶On Sunday not only is the news at home and abroad covered, but a score of special features make The Times-Dispatch the most attractive paper that can be had, while special sections touching the Industrial development of the State, Education, Good Roads and business prosperity have made it the great power in upbuilding Virginia and North Carolina.

These are some reasons why the people read

The Times-Dispatch
